

Ketosis simply means we are using the stored fat as the body's primary source of energy. This is how our ancestors survived during famines. It is perfectly normal and safe.

The Ideal Protein Protocol provides the MINIMUM adequate amount of high-quality protein to spare muscle while the body burns stored fat for energy.